RICH UHRICH COINS

Rich Uhrich Announces Retirement

January 7, 2018

I Have Decided to Retire

I have decided to retire effective February 11, 2018. I love the people involved in coins, including my clients, my table assistants, and other dealers. I will continue to be a collector, and I expect to visit some of the major shows such as FUN, Baltimore, and Summer ANA, but only for a couple days at a time. My last show as a coin dealer will be February 10 in Sebring, FL. For those of you who have coins on consignment with me, I will be emailing you a list of those coins, so that I can return those coins to you.

I want to thank all of my clients over the past twelve years, my table assistants, my mentors, dealers with whom I have done business, and most importantly, my wife Karen. I wish all of you the best in the future!
